Holiday Beanie Boxes:

The Holiday Beanie Boxes have been a wonderful and giving tradition at Bean's Cafe. Generous folks from the community provide festively decorated shoeboxes, full of practical, thoughtful and fun gifts for the poorest among us. We've made a checklist with requested items, and we hope this guide makes your giving that much easier. In addition to cards, folks enjoy other fun board games such as portable chess and checker sets, Sudoku, crossword and word game puzzle books are also prized. Please use this sheet as a guide to giving this holiday season. Thank you!

Client Spotlight:

Mike Johnston, Mike is of Haida Indian descent from Craig, Alaska. He worked on the Alyeska Pipeline, has hung iron all over the state and spent time as a commercial fisherman. Mike likes to spend his free time doing Haida wood carvings. In the future Mike would like to learn computer and grant writing skills. He hopes that this would help him make a difference in the world and to be a positive force in the community. Most importantly, Mike is grateful for Bean's Cafe and all that they do for the community.
